
PRODUCT DESIGN & DEVELOPMENT DEPARTMENT

“Technologist Career Opportunities”

The Product Design & Development Department (PDD) is currently offering a career opportunity, as further described below.

Alta-Fab is the industry leader in providing “Quality” manufactured living and working accommodation buildings for the industrial workforce sector, throughout Western Canada and beyond. This 36 year old company, based in Nisku, AB, maintains a solid reputation for “Innovation, Quality & Service” throughout its products and services with Clients, Suppliers and Employees. Our expanding business offer’s many long term opportunities for advancement, responsibility and a solid career. Managed by a diverse executive, the company’s future and direction will remain on a steady growth path, reaching into new & expanding directions, providing continuous opportunities for all.

The PDD department is responsible for the complete design, engineering and production of working drawings required for the fabricating of industrial major modular built projects and various transportable building designs.

Intermediate Architectural Technologist

A position exists for an Intermediate Architectural Technologist, who possesses a full working understanding of AutoCAD, and is willing to learn. Excellent remuneration, benefits and opportunity are available for those seriously interested, and posses as responsible nature. Tremendous opportunity to learn the “in’s and out’s” of various in house trades, building codes, and hands on detailed designing.

The successful candidate will posses:

- A Diploma in Architectural Technology or similar program
- 3-5 years experience in hands-on design
- A high level of proficiency in AutoCAD 2004 or higher
- Accuracy and attention to detail
- Effective verbal/written communication skills and a proactive/organized approach
- Knowledge of construction documentation, millwork details, finishes and specs
- Ability to be minimally supervised and proactive
- Experience with graphics and 3-D Renderings an asset
- Understanding of manufacturing environment and good working knowledge of building construction is an asset

Please submit your resume (no phone inquiries), along with salary expectations, in confidence to the attention of:

Michelle Monster
Executive Assistant
Email: mm@altafab.com
Fax: 780-955-4373
Website: www.altafab.com
